Day 2 Today we travel to Yosemite National Park. Glaciers transformed the rolling hills and streams into the colossal landscape of the present-day park. On June 30, 1864, the valley was set aside as the nation's first national state park by Abraham Lincoln. The Yosemite tram tour is a two-hour tour to guide you to many interesting sights in Yosemite and give you fascinating information about El Capitan and Yosemite Falls. There is leisure time to explore Yosemite Village to visit some of the restaurants and shops.

Day 3 We will depart early and enjoy the scenic drive to the Fresno Amtrak Station and board the train to Bakersfield. Traveling by train is a wonderful way to see central California as you sit back and relax. When you arrive in Bakersfield you will be met by your motorcoach to continue your way home. As you board the motorcoach you will reminisce about the beauty Mother Nature has provided for all to enjoy.
