Day 2 – Native American Heritage & Major League Baseball This morning, immerse yourself in the rich history and artistry of the Southwest at the Heard Museum, one of the nation’s premier destinations for Native American art and culture. Admire beautifully crafted jewelry, textiles, pottery, and contemporary exhibits that bring indigenous stories to life. In the afternoon, feel the buzz of springtime baseball as we enjoy a second Spring Training game.

Day 3 – Red Rocks of Sedona & Another Day at the Ballpark Today, we journey north to the spectacular town of Sedona, AZ a place renowned for its dramatic red rock formations, artistic vibe, and spiritual energy. Marvel at towering sandstone cliffs, browse charming galleries and shops, or simply enjoy the peaceful desert views. After this scenic side trip, return to the valley for another Spring Training game, where you can cheer them on once more and maybe even catch a foul ball!

Day 4 – Musical Treasures & Return Home This morning, visit the exceptional Musical Instrument Museum, a world-class collection of instruments and music traditions from across the globe. Enjoy interactive exhibits, videos, and even performances as you explore how music connects cultures. In the afternoon, head to the stadium one last time for your third Spring Training game. Sit back, relax, and savor every inning of this exciting finale to your baseball-filled Arizona escape.

Day 5 – After this harmonious farewell to Arizona, we’ll transfer you to the airport for your flight home—bringing with you memories of sunshine, scenic beauty, rich culture, and exciting baseball action.
